

Andrew Moser

In May 2007, Andrew Moser became Assistant Secretary of the Maryland Department of Labor, Licensing, and Regulation's Division of Workforce Development. Prior to becoming Assistant Secretary, Mr. Moser served as President/CEO of the Anne Arundel Workforce Development Corporation (AAWDC). During his tenure at AAWDC, Mr. Moser redesigned Anne Arundel County's workforce development system by increasing the number of service locations, while decreasing overhead costs by more than $500,000. He expanded the variety of services offered, and opened the first public workforce One-Stop at an international airport (BWI). The Comcast Hall of Fame Award for outstanding Economic Development Partnership of the Year was awarded to the partnership between AAWDC, BWI Thurgood Marshall Airport, and Anne Arundel Community College.

Earlier, Mr. Moser was a policy analyst and fiscal administrator for the Governor's Workforce Investment Board (GWIB), assisting in the creation of Maryland's five year strategic plan for workforce development. He is a graduate of the University of Maryland, where he earned a Master's degree in Business Management. He also holds an undergraduate degree in history from Rowan University.
