

Ann Losiewski

Vice President, Business Development

410 418 8475
alosiewski@kroll.com

700 Corporate Center Court
Suite K
Westminster, MD 21075
United States

Ann Losiewski serves the Background Screening division of Kroll as a vice president of Business Development and is based in Kroll's Maryland office. Since joining Kroll in 1996, Ann has capably served national and global Fortune 500 clients in the financial, real estate management, education, healthcare and legal industries, as well as those working within the field of professional services. Her extensive expertise in both background screening and substance abuse testing provides Kroll clients with a well-rounded and holistic approach to fulfilling their screening needs.

With nearly 15 years of industry experience, Ann has consistently exhibited her ability to assist clients with navigating through stringent and confusing compliance guidelines. Her insight into the regulations affecting various industries coupled with her knowledge of the unique solutions Kroll can provide have proven Ann an expert at designing programs to effectively address the needs of her clients.

Professional Experience

- Business Development. Ann's expertise in background screening enables her to assist clients with the development and implementation of thorough, legally compliant and consistent employment screening policies and procedures.
- Service Consultant. Ann analyzes the needs of various companies and organizations as related to the ever-changing legal and business climates.
- Healthcare Expert. Intimate knowledge of the healthcare industry proves Ann an invaluable asset to many nursing facilities in need of updating/restructuring their pre-employment background screening processes, thus gaining them risk reduction with regard to state and federal compliance issues.

Education, Certifications & Recognitions

- Towson University, B.S., Business Administration concentration in Marketing