

Elizabeth M. Carven, Deputy Director of the Maryland State Arts Council. In this capacity she directs the Arts and Entertainment Districts program, manages the Maryland Cultural Data Project, and assists in the development and direction of agency programs.

Ms. Carven joined the Maryland Department of Business and Economic Development (DBED) in April 2003 where she served as the Deputy Assistant Secretary for the Division of Tourism, Film and the Arts until joining the Arts Council in March, 2007.

A Harford County resident, and graduate of Towson University and Villa Julie College, Ms. Carven brings 17 years experience as an economic development professional including business development, community revitalization and grant writing/management. Prior to joining DBED, she served as Economic & Community Development Administrator for the Town of Bel Air. Among her accomplishments were overseeing several multi-million dollar community development projects, main street revitalization, and editing a book published by the Maryland Historic Trust on the history and architecture of Bel Air.