

SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Maryland is a world-class destination in terms of its economy and standard of living. Going forward, Maryland will continue to be the place where those who help shape the world economy will call home. Maryland offers a unique environment, with its diverse economy, top ranked education system, strong environmental stewardship, and choice recreational and cultural amenities.

Over 200 economic development professionals in the public and private sectors will be on hand to hear our expert presenters and see your message in the program materials.
