Lt. Governor Anthony Brown Biography

Lieutenant Governor Anthony G. Brown has a distinguished career in public service to his community, the State of Maryland, and our nation.

Lt. Governor Brown has established a full partnership with Governor Martin O'Malley. He was appointed Chair of the Governor's BRAC Subcabinet by Governor O'Malley and is playing a leading role in the Administration's efforts on higher education, veterans' affairs, domestic violence prevention, workforce creation and health care.

Prior to his election as Maryland's 8th lieutenant governor, Anthony was a member of the Maryland House of Delegates, where he served as the Majority Whip. Lt. Governor Brown also served on the Board of Trustees at Prince George's Community College for four years before joining the House of Delegates.

Anthony attended Harvard College and joined the Army ROTC. Upon graduating with honors in 1984, Anthony was commissioned a Second Lieutenant in the United States Army, serving a tour of duty in Germany as a helicopter pilot with the 4th Combat Aviation Brigade, 3rd Infantry Division.

In 2005, Anthony deployed with the 353rd Civil Affairs Command in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom. Brown served with distinction in Baghdad, Fallujah, Kirkuk and Basra and continues to serve our country in the United States Army Reserves. In December 2007, Anthony was promoted to the rank of Colonel in the United States Army Reserves and commands the 153rd Legal Support Organization.

Lt. Governor Brown and his children Rebecca and Jonathan live in Prince George's County.
