

LAURA L. GAMBLE

Laura L. Gamble is a founding member of Skipjack Partners, LLC, a firm focused on sourcing private equity and debt for small and midsize businesses. Prior to the founding of Skipjack Partners, Gamble spent over 20 years in banking. The most recent seven years were spent as President, Bank of America, Maryland where she led the bank's leadership team in Maryland. Prior to that, she led a variety of businesses within Bank of America in Commercial Banking, Treasury Management and Wealth Management.

Gamble earned a bachelors degree in business administration from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Gamble has a long history of civic and philanthropic involvement. Currently, she serves as the chair of the board of directors of the Economic Alliance of Greater Baltimore, and is a trustee of the Baltimore Community Foundation, the Sheppard Pratt Health System, the Central Maryland Transportation Alliance, and Lovely Lane United Methodist Church.

She has been recognized as one of the Top 100 Women in Maryland in 2007 and 2003, as well as a Most Influential Marylander in 2008, and a member of Baltimore's power 20 in January, 2009.

Gamble resides in Baltimore with her husband and two children.