

SEAN M. LOONEY, Vice President of State Government Affairs, Comcast

Mr. Looney represents the nation's largest cable television company before the General Assembly, the Governor's Office and various state agencies in Maryland and Delaware. He is the Vice Chairman of the Maryland Chamber of Commerce Legislative Committee and Treasurer of the Maryland Economic Development Association (MEDA). Sean is a 1996 graduate of Leadership Maryland, has served as Chairman of its Board of Directors and received Leadership Maryland's Leader of the Year Award in 2003. He has served as President of the Maryland Government Relations Association (MGRA), President of the Maryland Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA), on the Advisory Board of Maryland Business for Responsive Government (MBRG), the Board of Directors of Maryland Works, and the Development Committee for Catholic Charities. He lives in Annapolis with his wife and two children.