

James T. Paulk, CPA, JD

With over ten years of experience, JT is a manager at Clifton Gunderson LLP, the nation's 14th largest CPA and consulting firm. His specializes in tax compliance and consultation to individuals and entities in industries including governments, not-for-profits, manufacturing, wholesaling, real estate, construction, architecture, medical science, and recreational facilities.

A licensed CPA and attorney, JT has a Doctor of law/masters in business administration and a Bachelor of arts degree with a major in political science and history from Emory University.