

“A Primer for Economic Development in Maryland”
March 9, 2018 from 8:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.
Anne Arundel Community College/Arnold Campus

Sponsored by: Economic Alliance of Greater Baltimore

Join MEDA for a one-day training that has been created to provide participants an introduction and overview of how Maryland practices economic development. Course attendees will quickly develop a network of resources and link people and faces, all while building camaraderie among participants to further Maryland’s economic development team.

This course is designed for those who are new to economic development in Maryland, in addition to strategic partners in collaborative industries. Find out how economic development transforms lives by creating opportunities, inspiring innovation, and enriching communities. Together we can work to make a brighter, more prosperous future for the state of Maryland!

8:30 – 9:00 Networking and Coffee

9:00 – 9:05 Welcome Ignite

10:15-10:45 Introduction: Geographic Look at Economic Development in Maryland
Kim Clark, MEDA President & Executive Vice President of the Baltimore Development Corporation

Join us for a discussion of how Maryland’s regions are defined, which organizations support those particular regions, and how their unique characteristics command specialized economic development programs. Although this discussion is a must for those who are new to economic development and/or Maryland, those who have been in the industry or are planning to join us for this program will want to hear this discussion as it provides a basis for the remainder of the discussions today.

10:45 – 11:00 Ignite Maryland Presentations:
Secretary Kelly Schulz, Maryland Department of Labor Licensing & Regulation
Lucas Cade, First Energy
Brad Gillis, DEVRECO

11:00-11:10 BREAK

11:10 – 12:25 How Does Maryland “Do” Economic Development

Our moderator will provide an overview of how state and local representatives work together, and break down the scenarios for how specialized programs depend on the jurisdiction, the company, and the overall needs of the community.

Presenters will provide a discussion of varying approaches for business startups, growth, retention and attraction, from the perspective of the state and rural, suburban and urban communities.

The panel will address significant elements of what goes in to the business development process depending on the jurisdiction, the project, and the requirements of the company. Speakers will share case studies to show the key elements of a project.

Moderator: Larry Twele, CEcD, CEO, Howard County Economic Development Authority
